President Coolidge is convinced that the farmers need some relief and having killed the Farm Relief bill by veto is at least sure to have some relief measure to take its place. He will hardly call Congress for this relief, and the producer who can survive the present ruinous prices of his crops will doubtless welcome the promise, but he had better taste the pie before swallowing.

Will the Purcellites try to keep all those Democrats out of the Primary next August who voted against Mr. Purcell, the Catholic nominee for State Treasurer. If the party leaders have any sense drop this talk of disfranchising white people who desire to have a hand in the nomination of their public officers.

Reports are to the effect that Governor Byrd is ailing in pickering Virginia's next governor to be nominated two years hence. It would also appear that Gov. Al Smith is being picked for President. The governor will do well to let his administration be as it is without trying to pick his successor. The people of Virginia will not be hand-picked for Governor or President.

The Mind to Fail
 Until the millennial stage of cooperation can be reached when all farmers shall be organized for mutual protection, any real curtailment of acreage for a major crop is a matter for speculative discussion rather than one of vital interest. But governments can do what disassociated individuals will never accomplish. Crops can be curtailed, surpluses can be marketed by governments. Prices can be fixed. What Brazil has done and is doing for coffee, what Great Britain has done and is doing for rubber, what Canada is doing for wheat, these great United States can do for any staple crop or for every staple.

Such a policy, if pursued, would go far toward curing the ills of agriculture. It is a policy that can be successfully pursued if the men who undertake it have the determination to make it succeed; it cannot be effected by men who HAVE THE MIND TO FAIL. No undertaking of any magnitude can hope to prosper in timid hands. Pioneers must banish thoughts of failure. Caution and conservatism are essential in great enterprises but when these qualities degenerate into cowardice, the knell sounds—Exchange.

ROCKS NEWS
 Some of the young people around here had a real nice time on their usual trip to "Juniper Hill" Easter Monday fishing, climbing, and looking at the wonderful river below. About 50 young people gathered at the home of Miss Zella Inge on Monday night and reported a fine time there. Among the visitors in this neighborhood during Easter were: Mrs. Nora Meadows and Elizabeth Meadows, of Roanoke; Herman Marsh, Harold Marsh, Miss Lizzie Ransom, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Almond, and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stone, Mrs. Mary Dickerson, Mr. Clarence Hoffman, and Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Ransom, of Lynchburg. Rev. Thomas preached an ex-celent sermon at Rocks church Sunday morning. Miss Virginia Agee, of Guinea Mills, was visitor of the Misses Cawthorns Easter. Mr. Dowdy Almond, of Lynchburg, was visitor of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Almond some time ago. Mr. and Mrs. Andy Anderson entertained some of their friends Wednesday night in celebration of their 30th Wedding Anniversary. Refreshments were served. We wish them many more happy wedding anniversaries. The box supper at Rocks School Saturday night passed off rather quietly, a nice little sum was taken from the sale of the boxes which were sold. Dr. Holmes Inge got his foot mashed at the saw mill last week. He is getting on fine, we are glad to say. Everybody around here sure was sorry to hear about Mr. Burge's shoe being burned. We are glad he's in business again. Miss Louise Cawthorn, of Appomattox, spent Easter at the home of her parents. Mr. Frank Dickerson, of Alexandria, spent Easter with his father here.

 Friday afternoon an Easter Egg Hunt given by our school teachers, was much enjoyed by the school and other children of the neighborhood. Lester Sears proved himself the best hunter and captured the prize. Otherwise Easter passed rather quietly. There were no services at the Presbyterian Church Sunday owing to the sickness in the home of the pastor. We hope soon to hear of Mrs. Redding's recovery. Misses Iva and Idelle Ferguson spent the holidays with their parents, near Appomattox. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mosely, Sally and Kate Marshall, of So. Boston, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Marshall. Miss Bessie Marshall, of Lexington, N. C., was also home for Easter.

Mrs. L. E. Meadows, and children, of Appomattox, spent Easter with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Hubbard. Mrs. Laura Singleton, and son, Hallie, visited relatives here Sunday. Miss Ruth Swan, who is teaching at Arvonnia, was home for the holidays. Mr. Herman Glenn, and family, motored home for a few days visit. Our delegates to the S. S. Convention report a most inspiring and instructive meeting. The dinner was unusually bountiful and very efficiently served. Here's hoping that more of our members will attend the Convention at Rustburg next year. Dr. Pleasant, of Richmond, was a visitor in the home of Mr. J. R. Fore Sunday. All are rejoicing in some pretty warm weather. The farmers are at work with renewed vigor feeling themselves rather late on account of such a long rainy season. We take this means of expressing our deep and sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cawthon, and family, in their recent bereavement and sorrow.

These figures show that the percentage of convictions in the higher and aquittal lower in Appomattox than any of the other counties. I will quote figures for the adjoining counties of Campbell, Amherst, and Nelson as soon as I can get them. Upon this record I ask your support and vote, which I will appreciate.

The town election for mayor and councilmen will be held the second Tuesday in June. Mayor and Council elected for four years. The following ticket will be elected: Mayor—W. L. Brown; Council—R. S. Wheeler, J. W. Cawthon, R. C. T. Mosses, W. F. Woolfolk, Don Moses. Chas. F. James and C. S. McDearmon declared for council again after serving every since our town was incorporated.

The youth passed away at a hospital in Richmond Saturday from the effects of an operation. For months his case had puzzled the skill of specialists and our best physicians, finally an operation was resorted to. He was 18 years of age last December. Billy was just one of the best boys in town—admired and loved by his playmates and esteemed by every one who knew him. A large delegation of our citizens set out on their way to the funeral his remains. His funeral was conducted by his pastor, Rev. Trent. Liberty Church was filled and the grief of the congregation was noticeable as the tears dimmed the eyes of the great crowd. The interment was made at Liberty cemetery and the grave was bedecked with beautiful flowers. Although not 18 years of age we have never witnessed such universal sorrow in our town. He was the only son of Hon. J. W. Cawthon, Jr., and the sympathy of the whole county goes out to him and his family in this affliction.
